

Problem solving algorithm

1. Identify the problem as early as possible
2. specify the problem accurately
3. consider as many solution as possible
4. think through the implications of each solution
5. choose the best solution or combination of solutions
6. act on the solution
7. review the entire problem solving process.